Laura Brazil

General English

Malvern House London.

Has your English level improved?

Yes of course, the first week I arrived in London and I was asking people to repeat what they said because I didn't understand. I can now have a big conversation and talk for many minutes and my level is now really high.

Have you made friends here?

I'm from Brazil and I've had the opportunity to get to know my country neighbours such as Colombia, Venezuela, Argentina, Peru and even from Brazil. It's nice because English is my third language, other is Spanish and Portuguese. Even when I have the possibility to speak Spanish with my neighbours, I talk in English with them which is really nice because we can connect our South American cultures with one language.

Have you felt supported here?

I always prefer to be in a class with a British teacher because I really came here to improve my listening so it's been good for me to be in a class with a British teacher. The moment he said to me "okay, I think you can move up to another class" I said, "no I like this class because you are dynamic, I like your classes, I like your vocabulary and this works for me."

For you have any advice for future students?

Some friends from Brazil asked about Malvern. Please, if you have the opportunity to come to here, it's not about the English, it's not about the English course or just a school where you write on paper. You really learn life, you really learn how to speak in the street. Not just how to pass a test but you learn the language and the culture and how to speak formally and informally so if you have the opportunity it'll be really nice for you.
